Jeremy Stiles led the worship during the Tent Revival held at The Lions Park and sponsored by the West Liberty Church of God. Pastor Nate Wilcoxon spoke the first two days and Lane Loman the last three days. Ron Irick shares the history of old fashion tent meetings in the West Liberty area on the first night of the revival.

The 21st Annual Ice Cream Social to benefit Andy Smith took place at the West Liberty United Methodist Church. Money raised will go to support Andy, a 1998 graduate of West Liberty-Salem who recently had both legs amputated. Money raised will help pay for medical bills and household needs. The WL United Methodist Church and The Grove- A Place for Community hosted.

Ice Cream Social - Mary, Dorothy and Cathy enjoy the food and music.

Everyone enjoyed the musical entertainment during the event

Bible Verse for the Week-

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens
a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to uproot a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them, a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up, a time to keep and a time to throw away, a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Mending Fences by Tami Wenger

Do you have a fence that needs some mending?
Have hurt feelings caused it to break down?
If this is true
in your own life, then it's time to start mending those fences.
You don't want your life to be like a broken down fence.
Not being much good to yourself or anyone else.
Forgive and forget
put your past to rest.
Put your energy into the future instead.
Holding grudges against another hurts you more than them.
Start mending that fence today You'll be glad you did!
