

The West Liberty Star

October 8th, 2018

Free

Our Hometown News

Issue 27

Fall is in the air! Halloween will be here before you know it and I love looking at decorations folks put out this time of year. Contact me if you know of some great fall or Halloween decorations to show off here in The West Liberty Star.

West Baird Street

Harvest!

Mac-O-Chee Castle

Beautiful Fall Urn

Mac-O-Chee Castle- If you are traveling East on 245 out of West Liberty you will easily spot the eyes in the tower from quite a distance away. Very Spooky!

Logan Boggs, Dakota Madison, Rachel Chamberlin and Matthew Smith.

The play cast of "Where The Cross Is Made." On the 3rd floor of Mac-O-Chee Castle- again this weekend. Friday October 12th and Saturday the 13th at 7:30 pm. Tickets are $5.00 and are available at the door. Picture two shows the play director Dale Madison and several attendees. Great job by all!

Heritage Day was held at Mac-A-Chee Castle on Saturday. A presentation on World War II by the Ohio Living History Association, WWII US Mech Forces HQ.

October Events-

- *Spooktastic Free Used Book Giveaway- Saturday, October 20, 10 am - 1pm. The Teddy Bear Den, south of West Liberty on 68, in between Liberty Motors and Yoder Construction. Free balloons for the kids!
- *Beggar's Night 25th 6-7:30 pm
- *Ghosts & Goblins Halloween program at Mac-O-Chee Castle 27th-28th 4:30-6pm
- *Christmas Tree Auction part one- decorating October 1 - November 1 SIX TREES LEFT so get yours today!
- *Bidding for the Christmas Tree Auction- November 2-23 at Town Hall.
- *Christmas in the Village- November 2 & 3 Decorations, Christmas Preview, music and more.
- *Lions Club Ham & Turkey Raffle- Monday, November 19, 7pm at the Fire House

Prayers needed! Prayers for the family of Devin Marchal an 11 grader at WLS who was killed in an auto accident Sunday afternoon. Also for friends and classmates at WLS school.

Bible Verse- Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Hebrews 13:2